Profile

I am a B.Tech in Computer Science & Engineering student at JIS UNIVERSITY. I was born with a crayon in hand. Writing on walls, desks, tables, sometimes paper, and now digitally on a computer screen, I've been honing my abilities since I was an infant.

Aspiring Software Developer , Cybersecurity & Ethical Hacking Enthusiast. Currently pursuing a B.Tech in Computer Science Engineering with a passion for coding and innovative problem solving. Experienced in both front-end and back-end technologies, committed to building scalable and efficient software solutions while continuously expanding my knowledge and skills in the tech domain
